■ Handa City, Aichi Prefecture

Located in the eastern Chita peninsula, Handa is easily accessible from both Nagoya city and CHUBU CENTRAIR International Airport. Handa was established in 1937 and the population reached 120,000 in the spring of 2008. Handa had flourished in the shipping and brewing industries for a very long time and it was developing as a central city of politics, economy and culture in Chita area.

The symbols of Handa are "Dashi" (floats), "Kura" (warehouses), "Nankichi" (a famous author from Handa) and "Red Brick Building". Dashi festival in Handa has over 300 years of history and its traditions have been passed down from generation to generation.
